

Credit Courses

SSCI 3005/MDIS 3005

This 2-unit course taught by librarians satisfies research skills requirements for the Social Science and History Departments. It is also cross-listed through the Multidisciplinary Studies Department and available for any student who wants a thorough course in how to conduct academic research in a changing information environment. It is best taken in conjunction with another course that requires a research assignment.

HONS 3500

This is a 3-unit course for Honors students preparing to write their Senior thesis. It is team-taught by Honors faculty and library faculty.
